Manager Unice of the Intercity ball team, who is a student in the medical department of Dartmouth college, played yesterday with the "Indefatigables" against the Dartmouth varsity. Liberal applause from a crowded house was the greeting accorded the Lorne Flynn company on its second appearance of the season at the Barre opera house last night, and the work of the company fully merited the enthusiastic shown. Mr. Flynn and Miss Grey in the leading parts of the pretty Southern drama, "Polly Primrose," were very good, while they had good support. Emerson and Bolieu, the fugitives, came with some new features, and they kept the audience in an uproar all the time. The company plays the remainder of the week here.

This is the time of year that these goods are needed and must be bought, and it is the wise person who investigates these money-saving opportunities, as thousands have done and are doing. Space permits us to specify only a few things of the many where a substantial saving is plainly seen by any intelligent person. We ask you again to investigate. Can anything be fairer? Hornyak was turned over to Rural Letter Carrier Fred Reed, who is also a constable, and was brought to New Brunswick. Justice Sedam committed him to jail as a suspicious character, and his record will be investigated.

Hornyak says he received his injuries in a fight at South Amboy. His face was badly scratched. The Whitemans fought hard before being overpowered and killed by their assailants, and Hornyak looks as if he had been in such a fight.
